POSTDOCTORAL POSITION IN COMPLEX SYSTEMS

We have a postdoctoral position available, tenable from April 2011 to August 2012. This is to work on an interdisciplinary Complexity-NET project with partners in Spain, the Netherlands and the UK.

Further details of the project and the post can be found at

<http://www.manchester.ac.uk/aboutus/jobs/research/vacancy/index.htm?ref=178188>

The closing date is November 19th 2010.

Applications should be sent to the Human Resources Section at the University of Manchester, as explained in the documents on the above website (see 'further particulars').

Please forward this email to anyone who you think might be interested.

Best Wishes,

Tobias Galla
